Michele Paradiso, an Italian national, born in Rome on June 1, 1957, awarded as Knight of the Pontifical Equestrian Order of Saint Sylvester Pope and Martyr of San Silvestro Papa (Cavaliere di San Silvestro Papa – Vatican City).

He has 43 years of experience in banking, credit, and finance sectors. He was a member of the Financial Advisors Registry. Prior to his retirement in 2021, he covered the role of Manager for 25 years in various important financial institutions such as Fiduciaria S.Paolo, Banca Commerciale Italiana, Intesabci, Banca Intesa, and Intesasanpaolo. In particular, from 2010 to 2019 he was the Manager of Intesa San Paolo Branch at FAO and WFP.

The consulting proposal consists of packaging a series of services, following the guidelines for facilitating smooth, straightforward and transparent operational processes for the introduction, comprehension, and advancement in accessing banking services and products. This includes procedures such as opening various types of banking accounts, utilizing debit and credit cards, obtaining loans with or without collateral, exploring financial and insurance products, managing financial risks, and more. These guidelines aim to cater to the genuine needs and requirements of FAO and WFP members, providing comprehensive assistance on all the banking services available in the market.

In free time, he is very active in volunteer activities. Indeed, he has been a member of the SS Pietro e Paolo Association (former Palatine Guard of the Vatican City) since 1969 and of the National Association of Bersaglieri of the Civil Protection since 2021.
